

Changes to the way you apply for a Blue Badge from 2 November 2015 (poster)

To make a new claim

- Telephone the Assessment Contact Centre on 0300 1234 121 where a series of questions will be asked to see if you would be likely to qualify for a badge, and the correct form will then be sent to you.
- Complete an application online at www.gov.uk, by searching for blue badge.
- Download a claim form from our website, fill it in, and send to Cornwall Council, Revenues and Benefits, PO Box 676, Truro, TR4 9LD. Please note this address does not accept visitors in person.

To Pay the £10 fee for your Blue Badge

- Telephone the Assessment Contact Centre on 0300 1234 121 where a payment will be taken by debit or credit card.

To provide your completed form and documents

- Send to Cornwall Council, Revenues and Benefits, PO Box 676, Truro, TR4 9LD. Please provide photocopies, ensuring that they are clear and show the whole document. Please note this address does not accept visitors in person.
- Scan them in and email them to travelassessment@cornwall.gov.uk

Libraries and one stop shops will not be able to take a payment or issue a blue badge form
