To whom it may concern

I am currently working with local organisations and businesses in Cornwall looking how we support our local communities.

One of the ways we are having been supporting Cornwall is through our Barclays Van which enables us to answer any questions around finances, in places convenient for customers and non-customers.

The van was well received in 2020 visiting towns, small communities, events & local businesses.

The Barclays Van is next in Cornwall and could come to you on any of these dates in May week commencing 3rd/10th or June week commencing 14th/21st, 10am-2pm.

I have attached a photo to bring it to life a little.

Some of the ways we might support include Fraud and Scams Awareness, which has previously been well received.

My contact details are below, I would be happy to answer any questions you might have.
