Dear Members and Volunteers,

TAHC REPORT September 2022

This month volunteers worked 165 hours at the Centre and 103 hours at home. 75 visitors were greeted including Juliet and Dominic LANGDON DOWN, the Great Grandson of DR John.

This was Dominic's second visit with the purpose of presenting a family plaque to the Archives. The Mayor, Rachel EVANS BEM was also in the Hub on the occasion, having earlier presented all Torpoint's Condolence Books for Queen Elizabeth to the Archives where they can be appreciated in the future. The Condolence Books have been collated in a special Memorial Book. The Condolence Book from St James Church has since been added to the collection.

Fiona and Tom presented a TAHC report to South East Cornwall Museums Forum meeting held in Stuart House, Liskeard on Sept 27th. This was the first face to face meeting held by the group for 2 years. Ten volunteers attended a meeting on Sept 23rd to make further plans to share research for the proposed book "Torpoint's Streets and Terraces" Hopefully the book will be ready to celebrate TAHC 30th Anniversary in April 2024. The next Get Together for volunteers will be held in the Hub at 11am on Thursday Oct 6th.

Regards

Mike Pearn, Chairman
