Dear Members and Volunteers,

TAHC REPORT October 2022

The Street Market scheduled for the last Sunday of the month was cancelled because of high winds but several local stalls relocated to the Library Community Hub. As a result the Archives had the busiest day ever, greeting 30 visitors during the four hours of opening.

Right Bill and Rosemary before the rush!

During October the volunteers have worked 160 hours in the Hub, almost 100 hours at home and greeted 80 visitors. Three volunteers are now well enough to carry on with their projects, a new volunteer is "testing the water" and three new members have joined. One new member is from New Zealand. His ancestor was born in Island House Torpoint in 1851.

The next Get Together is 11 am Thursday Nov 3rd & at 12.30 on Friday November 4th (also in the Hub) Maddie will be presented with her award by the Mayor.

Regards

Mike Pearn, Chairman
