TAHC REPORT April 2023

Dear Members and Volunteers,

The last day of the month was very busy. Bill, Julie, John and Rosemary greeted 25 visitors. Opening on the day of the Street Market is rewarding. All together, the team of volunteers worked 172 hours at the centre, greeted 94 visitors and worked 162 hours at home. More than half of the home working hours were done by Maddie who has almost completed cataloguing 6 trays of School photographs. Thousands of pupils' names have been listed! Maddie has already started on her next project to categorise the 6 trays of Sports photographs. The assorted contents of the trays have been listed and Paula has already moved photographs showing Aerobics, Angling, Athletics and Bowling into their new tray.

Fiona and Tom have dressed the display cabinets with memorabilia relating to Coronations in the past. Visitors may look at 2 scrapbooks compiled in 1953. Tom and Janet gave a pictorial presentation, Old Torpoint to the Scouts. Julie has enlisted the help of the U3A Photographic Group to take images of locations around the town. We wish Dyan and Jenny well as they both recover from surgery.

An agenda for the AGM will be distributed after the TAHC Committee meeting on June 1st
