TO: South East Cornwall Community Area Partnership

Dear All,

Please see message below from the Cornwall Voluntary Sector Forum.

Invite to Challenge Poverty Week Event:

We would be delighted if you could attend the 'Real Living Wage for Cornwall' event we are collaborating on with Cornwall Independent Poverty Forum, Truro and Newquay Food Banks, End Hunger Cornwall and Cornwall Council.

We feel real change needs to happen at source. Tackling health inequality must involve a commitment across all sectors, for paying our staff the real living wage. Confirmed speakers include Sophie Hosking, Strategic Director for Neighbourhoods at Cornwall Council, Patrick Langmaid who implemented the Real Living Wage at Mother Ivey's Holiday Park, Andrew Yates of Cornwall Independent Poverty Forum, Simon Fann of Truro Food Bank and Emma Rowse CEO Cornwall Voluntary Sector Forum will be speaking to share the process.

We cordially invite you to

A Real Living Wage for Cornwall

When: 10am on Friday 13 October
Where: St Michael's Church, Newquay

Join us to hear how to support Cornwall to be the first Real Living Wage county in the UK.

Confirmed speakers include:

- Sophie Hosking, Cornwall Council
- Patrick Langmaid, Mother Ivey's Holiday Park
- Emma Rowse, Cornwall VSF.

Partners include:

During Challenge Poverty Week, we are also encouraging all elected Members to get out and visit food banks and organisations working to support communities. Our team can help arrange this.

Thanks for your involvement to date and there are some social media campaign posts starting to circulate to reveal guest speakers. Thanks for sharing and for your valued support.
