Subject: A new Cyber Protect Officer for Cornwall

Dear All –

As you will all be aware Cybercrime and Scams are on the increase. In response to this Devon and Cornwall Police have recently appointed a new Cyber Protect Officer specifically covering Cornwall.

His name is Craig Lang and he is based in Cornwall.

Craig can deliver Cybercrime awareness presentations to Businesses, Charities, Community Groups, Parish and Town Councils anywhere in Cornwall.

He is also available to attend appropriate public engagement events in Cornwall.

There is no charge for Craig's services.

Craig is now taking bookings for next year. Should you wish to make use of Craig's expertise, please drop him a line - craig.lang1@devonandcornwall.pnn.police.uk

By all means please feel free to share this information with others in your contacts lists, who you think may be interested in this information.

Regards

Mick HARRISON
