The Wreath Laying Ceremony

Officiating Chaplain:

Let us remember before God and commend to His sure keeping those who have died for their country in war; those whom we knew and those whose memory we treasure and all those who lived and died in the service of mankind.

We are here to worship Almighty God, whose purposes are good; whose power sustains the world He made; who loves us, though we have failed in His service; who gave us Jesus Christ for the life of the world; who by His Holy Spirit leads us in His way.

As we give thanks for His great works, we remember those who have lived and died in His service and in the service of others; we pray for all who suffer through war and are in need; we ask for His help and blessing that we may do His will and that the whole world may acknowledge Him as Lord and King.

Hymn: Eternal Father, Strong to Save

Eternal Father, strong to save,
whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
its own appointed limits keep:
O, hear us when we cry to Thee,
for those in peril on the sea!

O Christ, whose voice the waters heard
and hushed their raging at thy word,
who walkedst on the foaming deep,
and calm amidst its rage didst sleep:
O, hear us when we cry to Thee,
for those in peril on the sea!

O Holy Spirit! Who didst brood
upon the waters dark and rude,
and bid their angry tumult cease,
and give, for wild confusion, peace:
O, hear us when we cry to Thee,
for those in peril on the sea!

O Trinity of love and power,
our brethren shield in danger's hour;
from rock and tempest, fire and foe,
protect us wheresoe'er they go:
thus evermore shall rise to Thee
glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

THE ACT OF COMMITMENT

Let us pledge ourselves anew to the service of God and our fellow men and women.

ALL Say Together Lord God our Father, we pledge ourselves to serve you and all mankind in the cause of Peace, for the relief of want and suffering and for the praise of your Holy Name.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in Heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done
On earth as it is in Heaven
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us,
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory,
For ever and ever,

Amen

Hymn: I Vow To Thee My Country

I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above,
Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love:
The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test,
That lays upon the altar the dearest and the best,
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.

And there's another country, I've heard of long ago,
Most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know;
We may not count her armies, we may not see her King;
Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering;
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.

The Blessing

God grant to the living, grace; to the departed, rest;
to the Church, the King, the Commonwealth and all mankind, peace and concord; and to us all
His servants, life everlasting.

The Blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
Come down upon you and remain with you always.

Amen.

The National Anthem

God Save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King.
Send Him victorious.
Happy and Glorious,
Long to reign over us
God save the King.

In Flanders' Fields

*In Flanders' fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders' fields.*
