Subject: Cornwall Bus Conference - Wednesday 24 June

Information Classification: PUBLIC

TO: South East Cornwall Community Area Partnership

Dear All

Please see below information in relation to the Cornwall Bus Conference to be held on 24th June.

The invite is open to anyone with an interest in bus services and specifically those who represent voices and groups in the community. Capacity is limited and places will be confirmed by email, hence the need for people to register for a place via the link below.

Cornwall Council is holding the Cornwall Bus Conference on Wednesday 24 June, 4.30–7.30pm at New County Hall, Truro. This event will bring together partners and stakeholders to explore how Cornwall's bus network is funded and delivered, what we've achieved in recent years, and what's coming next.

The evening will include short presentations, interactive elements and a panel discussion with key stakeholders, focusing on the Enhanced Partnership, potential future bus reform and opportunities for greater integration. There will also be time for questions, including those submitted in advance. An agenda will be issued closer to the event and will be available at: Cornwall Bus Conference | Let's Talk Cornwall.

Places are limited and will be confirmed by email so please register for the event using the link above.

With kind regards

Lisa
